 - B. Business: Ms. Ying Zhang (Faculty of Business-specific agreements only)
 - C. Marine Institute Campus: Ms. Sonia Ho
 - D. Grenfell Campus: Ms. Nicole Watson
2. The coordinator will provide you with an exchange code for our online application process as well as supplemental documentation necessary.
3. Additional documentation can be emailed directly to the appropriate coordinator at Memorial. Additional documents include:
 - a. Letter of nomination from home institution
 - b. Official Transcript (English translation)
 - c. Course Selection Form
 - d. Verification of English proficiency or letter of English proficiency – full details can be found here: <http://www.mun.ca/regoff/calendar/sectionNo=REGS-0279>
4. MUN Mentors application (optional) – St. John's Campus
 - a. At Memorial, we have a program designed to help ease the transition process for new international students by pairing them up with current Memorial students. Exchange students can apply here <http://www.mun.ca/international/programming/mun-mentors-program.php>

QUOTAS

- The total number of nominees to both campuses will usually not exceed 6 (six) exchange placements per year, with not more than 4 exchange placements at any one campus (unless otherwise specified in the agreement).

COURSES AND REGISTRATION

- Home institution coordinators and students will select, sign, and submit preferred courses on the Course Selection Form
- Any changes made after submission of the form must be authorized by the home institution prior to registration
- Registration usually takes place about 4-6 weeks prior to the start of the semester
- Complete course descriptions can be found in our university calendar under the appropriate faculty or school: <http://www.mun.ca/regoff/calendar/>
- Credit Value Equivalency (approximate): 1 credit hour (MUN) = 2 ECTS (Europe); 1 course (MUN) = 3 credit hours = 6 ECTS
- Students are encouraged to take between 3 and 4 courses per semester (maximum of 5 per semester).
