Háskólasetur Vestfjarða
University Centre of the Westfjords

Fact Sheet on Open Courses at the University Centre of the Westfjords

The University Centre operates two international master's programs:

- Coastal and Marine Management, MRM
- Coastal Communities and Regional Development, MA

Contact Information
Administrative Director of Education and Teaching	Ms. Astrid Fehling, Email: astrid@uw.is , Phone: +354 4503043
Website	www.uw.is

Master courses at UW
UW offers two international master's programmes in Coastal and Marine Management and Regional Development, accredited through the University of Akureyri. These programmes are taught in modules in English by an international body of instructors from August through June. All master's courses at the University Centre of the Westfjords are open to participants from other universities. North to North - exchange students are eligible to take as many courses as they wish.
Links to timetable and course descriptions
https://www.uw.is/en/study/resources/teaching-schedule
Requirements
All applications for entry to individual courses must be reviewed by the Master's program committee. Requirements for acceptance is generally that the applicant has completed their undergraduate studies and very good command of English.
Application Process
All students need to apply using the University Centre application form https://www.uw.is/en/admissions/guest-studies-at-uw/international-exchange and provide the following supporting documents: 1. Official evidence of previous education in the form of certified transcripts. 2. Curriculum Vitae. 3. Certification of English Language proficiency The application deadline for individual courses is two months before the course begins.
Costs
North to North program applicants do not have to pay a tuition fee taking single courses at the University Centre of the Westfjords.
Accommodation
UW's student housing was built in 2023 https://www.uw.is/en/community/student-accomodation/student-housing . For short term lease please contact studentagardar@uw.is.
Visa
Please find information about visa requirements on the Icelandic Directorate of Immigration website.