

Arctic Practices System (APS)

Presentation by Stein Sandven (NERSC), Siri Jodha Khalsa (IEEE) and Jay Pearlman (IEEE)

- APS is planned to be a digital database about practices used by people living and working in the Arctic
- APS will hold documents describing how things are done, for example how environmental data is collected and what methods are used, etc.
- APS will be populated by people who want to share their knowledge with others by inserting documents into the system
